Congress Gets JFK's Foreign Aid Plan

Castro Admits Cuba In Trouble

Announces Drastic Food Rationing Plan

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro, admitting his 3-year-old revolution faces serious problems, announced drastic rationing of food and other staples Monday night and declared: "We are ashamed of not fulfilling the promises made."

Castro blamed the current hardships on counter-revolutionary elements and "the brutal economic blockade"—the U.S. embargo. President Kennedy ordered last month on shipments to Cuba of nearly all American goods except medical supplies.

The bearded prime minister also admitted that his regime had made serious blunders in planning "because we made subjective analyses."

"The most serious problem of the revolution is that of supplies," he told the Cuban people in a radio-television speech. "This problem will put to the test the capacity of the revolution and the revolutionaries. There are thorns in the path."

Castro was unsmiling and his tone was often bitter as he re-

Council Boosts Hard-Pressed Street Fund

City Council, meeting in special session Monday night at City Hall, voted to borrow $10,000 against the city treasury to pay off overdue bills in the street department.

The $10,000 is to be issued in the form of treasury notes and will be paid back from the street maintenance and repair fund with interest of one per cent.

It was decided to borrow the money from the city treasury instead of obtaining a loan from a bank in order to save the city from having to pay five per cent interest.

In January, Council voted to borrow $5,000 from a local bank at five per cent interest to meet the street department payroll until gasoline tax payments and the city's share of vehicle license plate sales are received. This loan has not been paid off yet.

City Auditor Helen Coyne says the license plate money probably won't be coming in until at least the last of April. She says that with all of its unpaid bills, the hard-pressed street fund probably will be in financial difficulty all year.

U.S. Aiding In Training Of Thailanders

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. military advisers have started training Thailand's army to fight Communist guerrillas, apparently in anticipation that Thailand may be the next target of the Red drive to control Southeast Asia, informed sources said today.

Although there have been no reports of significant Communist guerrilla activity in Thailand, officials of the pro-Western Bangkok government have been increasingly concerned they may face such a threat if a Communist-leaning neutralist regime takes over neighboring Laos.

Laos has been a staging area and an avenue for Communist North Vietnamese irregulars trying to topple the anti-Communist government of South Viet Nam. Pro-Communist forces in Laos have operated close to the Thai border.

The United States last week formally promised to come to Thailand's aid in event of Red aggression, regardless of what other members of the anti-Communist Southeast Asia Treaty Organization may do.

A possible clue to a quickening U.S. effort to bolster Thailand against any Communist offense came in Monday's announcement that Army Maj. Gen. Theodore J. Conway is being sent there in July to assume command of the U.S. Military Assistance Group.

Conway, 52, is leaving the command of the 82nd Airborne Division, one of the Army's crack outfits.

Conway, who was senior adviser to Korea's First Army several years ago, will replace Army Maj. Gen. Briard P. Johnson. In recent years, Johnson's work has been in the field of logistics and administration.

There was no indication of any immediate increase in the military aid program in Thailand. This year, it totaled $58,594,000—somewhat more than one-third of that being applied in South Viet Nam where the Communist danger has been critical for some time.

The United States has about 219 military advisers working with Thailand's forces which total about 100,000 men, mostly in the army.

and British experts had advised Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home that the President's proposal was impractical because of continued Russian opposition to widespread foreign inspection behind the Soviet frontiers.

Rusk and Home were reported to believe the best they can hope to negotiate is an agreement providing for some sort of spot checks in known testing areas.

Kennedy recently cited the need for safeguards against secret test preparations because the West was taken in by the Russians last year. The Soviet Union began a surprise series of nuclear tests while still negotiating in Geneva for a test ban treaty.

Informants said the Russians, in informal talks going on here in preparation for the 17-nation disarmament conference opening Wednesday, stood firm on their old position that on-the-spot inspection is no longer necessary to detect nuclear blasts. They contend that detection instruments are now so highly developed they can detect nuclear explosions anywhere.

The Russians released a reshuffle of Soviet disarmament proposals Monday which Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko is expected to put before the disarmament conference.

Replying to questionnaires from acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant, Gromyko called for an international convention banning the use of nuclear weapons; a pledge by the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union not to turn over nuclear weapons or information on how to produce them to other countries; a pledge by the non-nuclear countries not to produce or acquire nuclear weapons or allow their stationing on their territory, and the designation of Africa and central

School Board To Borrow for March Payroll

Seeks Kindergarten Classroom Space In Baptist Church

The Salem Board of Education last night voted to borrow approximately $50,000 to meet the final payroll for March.

Although the school fund currently shows a balance of approximately $65,000, this is not enough to meet both payrolls this month. Clerk-Treasurer Wallace King explained. The mid-month payroll will take up $46,000 of this balance, leaving an insufficient amount to meet the end of the month payroll which is expected to be around $50,000.

Paid Off $90,000 Note

An advance from the county on Feb. 28 of approximately $120,000 in property taxes and a $75,000 settlement on March 1 from school foundation money enabled the Board to take care of all unpaid bills and pay off $90,000 borrowed from the First National Bank earlier this year.

In other business last night, the Board of Education took the following action:

1. Approved the request of Anna Mae Umbach for a one-year extension of his leave-of-absence to continue teaching in Germany.

2. Authorized Supt. Paul E. Smith to negotiate with the Baptist Church for use of some space there for a classroom.

3. Adopted a transportation policy for the school system.

4. Adopted an immunization policy for children who will enter kindergarten next year.

5. Approved the appointment of Mrs. Violet Smith as a replacement for Mrs. Clara Coy as a matron at the junior high school at a rate of $1 per hour, effective March 1. Mrs. Coy resigned.

For Kindergarten Students

The classroom being sought at the Baptist Church would be used primarily for kindergarten students in the McKinley School district. Supt. Smith said that other alternatives, such as building a permanent addition or a mobile structure, would be much more expensive.

The transportation policy adopted by the Board sets up the following criteria for students who may ride the city school buses:

1. If the student lives outside the corporation limits where the lack of a city connected sidewalk would require walking along a traveled highway and is accessible to a practically established bus route.

2. If the pupil resides in an area covered by former commitments of the Board of Education that will be serviced as long as existing facilities permit. These include junior high pupils from Liberty St. Jones Drive and W. Euclid and high school pupils from west of the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks.

Supt. Smith said that the annual cost for bus transportation is approximately $29,000.

Replacement of 4th St. Building Looms

School Renovation Program Proposed

A list of recommended improvements for Salem's seven public schools and Reilly Stadium, carrying an estimated price tag of $84,725, was presented to the Board of Education Monday night by D. M. Fadely, assistant superintendent of schools.

Fadely explained that the recommendations are for the board's future consideration and no priority has been established for the items.

He pointed out that over $43,000 has been spent on improving the buildings and stadium in the past two or three years.

It was brought out during discussion last night that the old Fourth Street building will have to be torn down within the next few years. The state fire marshal has recommended, although thus far he has not ordered, that the building be abandoned.

"A new building on this site needs to be a part of our future planning," Fadely told the Board. The open wooden stairway to the second floor creates a dangerous condition in case of a fire, the fire marshal has pointed out. Structural weaknesses in the building have also been showing up more every year.

For these reasons, board members are reluctant to sink large sums of money into improving the Fourth Street building.

Nevertheless, improvements totaling $7,500 to keep Fourth Street in operation for a while under reasonably safe conditions are recommended by Fadely. The largest sum ($3,000) would be used to blacktop an additional playground area.

Improvements recommended for Buckeye School include a sidewalk along 12th St. to N. Ellsworth Ave. ($1,200) and the cleaning out of an orchard for added playground area ($500). The total needed for Buckeye is $1,700.

Cruiser-Auto Crash Injures 3

Patrolman Unhurt; 4 Mishaps Probed

Three men were injured, none seriously, in a collision between their car and an Ohio Highway Patrol cruiser which turned in front of them on Rt. 7, about two miles north of Rogers, at 12:08 p.m. Monday, the Patrol reports.

Hurt were: Joseph Heatherington, 38, of Wintersville, contusion of the back.

Harold Ferguson, 59, of Steubenville, contusion of the right leg.

Harold Ferguson, Jr., 28, of Weirton, W. Va., contusions of the head and knee and abrasions of the arm.

All three of the injured said they would go to their family doctor in Steubenville for treatment.

Driving the cruiser was Patrolman Philip E. Wenner, 29, of RD 2, Leetonia, who is assigned to the Lisbon barracks. Heatherington was driving north and Wenner was traveling south on Rt. 7 when the cruiser turned in front of the other car, the Patrol reported. The patrolman was not injured.

No one was hurt in a three-car mishap on Rt. 9 at the intersection of Rt. 172 in New Garden at 3:50 p.m. Monday.

The cars were operated by Donald L. Carney, 26, of Lawrence, Kan.; Ethel M. Mount, 61, of RD 2, Salem; and Leo M. Bielski of RD 1, Hanoverton.

According to the Patrol, Carney drove his east-bound car into the path of the Salem woman's auto which was headed north on Rt. 9. The impact knocked Carney's car into Bielski's auto which was stopped on Rt. 172, headed west.

Carney was cited for driving into the path of another vehicle.

Peter J. Rom, 44, of Youngstown, was arrested for reckless operation after he was involved in a two-car mishap on Rt. 7, just northeast of the Wellsville corporation limits, at 5 p.m. Monday.

The Patrol said Rom was traveling northeast on Rt. 7 when his car jumped the medial strip and collided with a southwest-bound auto operated by Fred Meyer, Jr., 35, of Pittsburgh.

A Salem truck driver was involved in an accident with another truck on Rt. 224, about one-half mile west of Boardman, at 5:05 p.m. Monday.

John P. Sturgeon, 22, of RD 2, Salem, drove his tractor into the rear of a 1962 tractor-trailer, operated by Ervin J. Hayes, 38, of Modrell, Ind., who had stopped for traffic, the Patrol reported. Sturgeon was cited for failing to stop in the assured clear distance.

Kennedy Cites Needs for More Than 4 Billion

Says We Must Help Others Fight Chaos, Communism

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy formally submitted a $4,878,500,000 foreign aid program to Congress today. He insisted every dollar is vitally needed to combat threats of communism, chaos and tyranny in other lands.

Kennedy drew a line against cutting the appropriation in a special message to Capitol Hill. Members of Congress always are inclined to cut the vast program—and show little inclination to break the habit this time.

Some of the appropriations require authorizing legislation. Hearings get under way Wednesday before the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Except for fresh words of persuasion, the presidential message generally follows in all essentials previews of the aid program for the 1963 fiscal year already presented in Kennedy's budget and State of the Union message.

The President proposed $3,378,500,000 of appropriations for economic help and $1,500,000,000 for military assistance, to make up the $4,878,500,000 total.

Last year he asked for a total of $4,806,000,000 and got only $3,914,500,000—a reduction of $891,500,000. Congress provided $2,314,500,000 for economic and $1,600,000,000 for military aid.

Expenditures, which always trail behind appropriations, would go up from an expected $1,935,000,000 to $2,235,000,000 for economic assistance for the 1962 and 1963 fiscal years. Those for military aid would remain unchanged at $1.4 billion for each year.

Kennedy said his recommendations are based on careful examination or urgent needs. The amounts in every category, he said, are essential to achieving the goal of strengthening developing countries to meet the stress of rapid change and to "repel Communist efforts to exploit such stress."

Contending that slashes by Congress would be hazardous, the chief executive said: "We should know by now that where weak-

Motion Denied To Throw Out State Appeal

Legal terminology sometimes is confusing, even to newspapermen who frequently have to distinguish between motions, dismissals, demurrers, briefs and actions which are nolleprosequi.

In a recent story we erred. We reported March 7 that a motion to dismiss the indictments against the Lisbon Sales Book Co. and four of its officers was overruled by the 7th District Court of Appeals. Actually, the Appellate Court refused to grant a motion by the Lisbon firm and its officers to throw out an appeal by the state from a decision which dismissed indictments against the Lisbon company for illegally printing "numbers" slips.

Atty. William Moore of Lisbon, counsel for the salesbook concern, was given until April 6 to file briefs on his motion.

The state (attorney general's office) had appealed the decision by Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp of Columbiana County that the grand jury indictments were not in accord with state and federal constitutions.

The indictments were returned after Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy led a raid on the firm Sept. 6, 1961. Named as defendants were the company and four of its officers: Isadore Sufrin, Joseph Sufrin, Martin Sufrin and Michael Scheidelmire, all of Pittsburgh.

The indictments are based on a new state law which makes printing of numbers slips illegal.

Judge Sharp ruled the law was unconstitutional because it does not take into consideration intention or knowledge by the manufacturer of the use to which the printed slips are to be put.

JFK Is Having Rough Time With Congress

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's strategy with a Congress run by his own Democrats seems to call for a broad variety of proposals but an all-out pitch for just a few.

He followed this course last year. He has done the same so far this year, although 1962 is still young. It's a technique which avoids a bruising fight with Congress. It also leaves a lot of people disappointed.

The 1961 result was a great many measures approved, if only in a chopped down, diluted version of what he asked. In actual number of items passed the list was impressive.

Not passed were some of his most controversial requests—ones on which he talked bigger than he acted. On these he could hardly claim he fought very hard. Two of his most important programs last year, from the standpoint of national safety and foreign affairs, were his foreign aid program and his request for billions for defense.

He fought for them and he got them, although Congress whittled his foreign aid request from $4,806,000,000 to $3,914,500,000.

But in 1961 Congress by-passed, and Kennedy didn't fight for, federal aid to education, medical care for the aged and civil rights legislation. He had promised much on civil rights in 1960.

He is dealing with a Democratic Congress which is increasingly conservative. When the very conservative Southern Democrats and Republicans join forces there is in effect a third party.

If Kennedy, for example, made a vigorous effort to get civil rights legislation he might anger his Southern Democrats so much some of his other programs would suffer.

An effort to avoid this seems to be the only explanation for his failure to do more than he did. In the age of television a president who runs into a wall in Congress doesn't have to stop there.

He can go over the heads of Congress by explaining the need for his program directly to the people and asking their help in putting the heat on Congress to give him what he wants.

For some reason of his own Kennedy has avoided this tactic.

This year he may use it a little. He disclosed Monday he will speak at a Madison Square Garden rally May 20 for one of the programs he has again asked Congress to approve: medical care for the aged.

This speech will be part of an administration campaign for public support of the plan. Kennedy has brought into the White House an associate of long-standing, Richard Maguire, a 47-year-old Boston lawyer, to help coordinate the efforts of various groups pushing for medical care.

It was obvious from the beginning that this year Kennedy would surely go to bat all the way for his trade program, and he has. He has asked Congress for strong tariff-cutting power so this country can deal effectively with the European Economic Community—the Common Market.

This fight started months ago with statements by Kennedy and some of his top assistants. Now he is sending seven Cabinet members up to the Capitol to testify before congressional committees.

Although he has made a big thing of federal aid to education there is no public indication he intends to work for it this year any harder than he did last. Still, he has a lot of pushing to do in a lot of directions.

Here are some of the other proposals he has made so far this year:

Action on civil rights, a new farm program and higher postal rates (both ignored by Congress last year); a new department of urban affairs and housing (already killed by Congress this year); measures to fight unemployment; a six-point economic program, including steps he can take in case of severe recession; a massive immunization program against diseases; sterner food and drug laws; authority to buy $100 million in U.N. bonds; creation of a global communications system.

HOLES IN HEARTS — Of the four children of the Campbell family of Coquitlam, near Vancouver, B.C., the three girls have holes in their hearts and their brother probably has. Doctors describe it as a million-to-one medical occurrence. Open heart surgery is planned for the girls, left to right: Connie, 18 months; Shelley, 3, and Jacqueline, 4. An examination later this week of Scott, 8 months, second from right, is expected to reveal he also has a hole in his heart.

Poll Taxes Bill To Be Studied By Senators

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Kennedy administration moves today to bring before the Senate a proposed constitutional amendment to abolish poll taxes as the first step toward stiffer civil rights legislation.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana announced Monday the poll tax measure, now stuck in the Senate Judiciary Committee, will be offered as a substitute for a House-passed bill on the calendar.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, the assistant Democratic leader, told reporters the administration hopes thus to set a pattern for a post-Easter battle to strike down state literacy tests in federal elections.

He said a bill to make the completion of a sixth-grade education the only literacy requirement for voting in federal elections also will be offered.

"The abolition of state poll taxes is a modest, but necessary step in our civil rights program," Humphrey said. "We will follow the same pattern in trying to get action on the literacy test issue."

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., called the administration move for a poll tax amendment a subterfuge, designed to get a plus mark for the Democrats in the civil rights field. He said such an amendment may never be adopted by the states even if it passes Congress. He said he would offer a bill to accomplish the same purpose.

The administration obviously has concluded it will not be able to get either the proposed poll tax constitutional amendment or the literacy bill out of the Senate Judiciary Committee, headed by Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss. Mississippi is one of the five states which still have a poll tax. Others are Alabama, Arkansas, Texas and Virginia.

The Senate passed an identical poll tax amendment by a 72-16 vote in 1960 but it died in the House. To become a part of the Constitution, an amendment must have two-thirds approval of those voting in both houses and ratification by three-fourths of the states.

Almost nobody thought that the literacy proposal could command a two-thirds margin in the Senate.

Lisbon To Cut Expenditures

Treasurer Warns Of Financial Plight

LISBON — Village Council's finance committee will meet next Monday night to draft recommendations for cuts in expenditures as the result of a warning from Clerk-Treasurer Ray Hempstead last night that the village was in an acute financial plight.

Hempstead told councilmen that the general fund contained only $2,200, compared to $11,000 at this time last year. After payment of this month's bills, he said, the fund will be reduced to $1,700.

The clerk-treasurer said the village will receive about $7,400 in real estate tax money the latter part of April, but that amount will last only a month and a half at the present rate of expenditure.

Council has scheduled a public hearing April 2 on the proposed 3-mill levy which will be voted on at the May primary. Forty clubs and organizations have been invited to send representatives.

Endorsement of the levy would provide an additional $18,000 annually for village operating expenses, a sum, village officials say, is needed to maintain normal services.

Paul Kuhns, member of the Board of Public Affairs; Elmer Donnelly, water department employee, and Street Commissioner Richard Roberts presented a village employee hospitalization program for Council consideration. Council will meet next Monday at 7:30 p.m. with employees and the insurance company agent to discuss the plan.

The street committee recommended installation of a three-way stop sign at the intersection of W. Washington St. and Lincoln St. Parking restrictions on E. Washington St. were discussed, but no action was taken. The timing of stop lights in the village also was discussed. No decision was reached.

A request by Robert George of New Waterford to establish a garbage and rubbish collection agency in village was tabled by council.

Courtney Pennell, representing the Ohio Fuel Gas Co., reported the company has had no low pressure areas in the village this winter. Service complaints were due to stopped meters or faulty heaters, he said.

Council's next meeting will be March 26 at 7:30 p.m.

Memorial Day Assn. To Elect Officers

A meeting of the Memorial Day Association will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the American Legion Home.

The following organizations are requested to send two representatives each to the meeting for the purpose of electing officers and to make arrangements for the Memorial Day ceremonies:

The Ministerial Association, Daughters of American Revolution, Daughters of Union Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Gold Star Auxiliary, Amvets, Amvets Auxiliary, American Legion, American Legion Auxiliary, Sons of Union Veterans and Sons of Union Veterans Auxiliary.

Sessions Scheduled For 4-H Advisers

LISBON — Harold Windram of Leetonia, former vo-ag teacher and 4-H club agent, will lead a discussion on the principles of construction and methods of teaching woodworking and rope projects when 4-H club advisers meet Thursday at 8 p.m. at St. George's parish hall.

Advisers on electric projects will meet at the same place and time to hear a talk by William Schnug of Ohio State University.

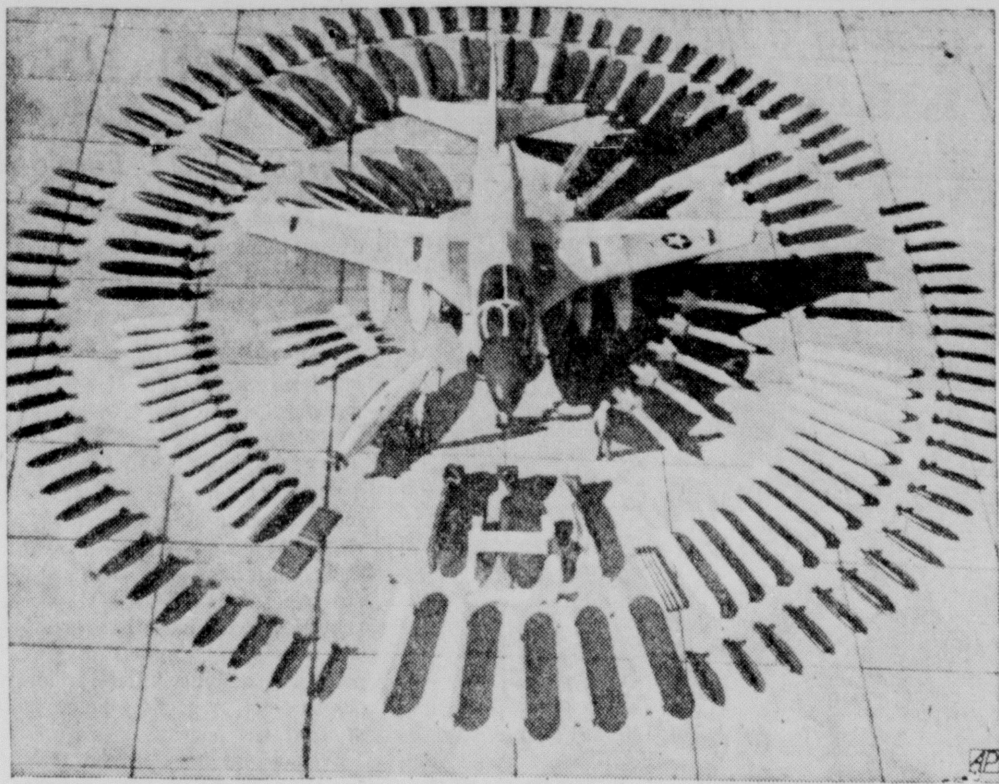

A training meeting for clothing advisers will be held Friday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the basement of the First Christian Church, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture.

Leggett Trial To Start Long Battle In Kentucky County

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — The trial of Robert Leggett was to start today in U.S. District Court, touching off a long series of legal battles about vice in neighboring Campbell County and its biggest city, Newport.

The most sensational trial in the series is likely to be that of Mrs. Elizabeth McCoy left by plane Sunday for Hollywood, Fla., where she will visit her nephew, Robert Votaw. Mrs. McCoy has been confined to the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCoy of Columbiana, due to a broken hip which she received in a fall several months ago.

James Young has returned home after spending several weeks with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Young, San Pedro, Calif.

A special prayer meeting will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Two topics, "The Light and The Way," and "The Hope and The Life," will be presented by Mrs. T. P. Laughner and Mrs. Fred Floding.

Another case going on trial soon involves five men accused of moving from Tampa, Fla., to Newport to set up a "bust-out" gambling operation at the Frolics Club during the 1961 World Series between the Cincinnati Reds and the New York Yankees.

Also stemming from the same background of a once wide-open Newport is the case of Frank (Screw) Andrews and eight other men, indicted of evading $387,555 in income taxes on numbers racket operations.

Publicity resulting from the incident contributed heavily to Ratterman's election victory in November — even though Newport voters were largely against him.

Both were arrested. Ratterman claimed he'd been drugged and framed. After a trial described by some as a "three-ring circus," the charges against him were dismissed.

Whatever the Explanation

Steel industry negotiations are in one of those situations common to our affairs where the idea is to keep talking without saying anything.

No one ever will know what is going on until it's finally over. Even then it still may be unknown why steel negotiations were undertaken early, broken off and now are going to be resumed. Other than the well-advertised interest of President Kennedy and Secretary of Labor Goldberg in a quick settlement—months before the existing contract expires June 30—everything about the negotiations is as veiled in mystery as the foreign policy of the Soviet Union.

Whatever the explanation, one thing is certain to emerge from the procedure that no one presently can explain.

THE KENNEDY ADMINISTRATION, receiving its advice from Secretary Goldberg, former chief counsel for United Steelworkers Union, is trying to set up a new procedure for key industrial contract-making.

The idea that prevailed for eight years of the Eisenhower administration that labor unions should hammer out their contracts with management as free and independent agencies is not being observed in the Kennedy administration.

As stated by Secretary Goldberg, the Kennedy administration's policy is that the public interest is pre-eminent in industrial contract-making. No labor union shall have the right to upset the economy of its own will. And it goes without saying that no employer shall have the right to upset the economy either.

The federal government has moved into labor relations with both feet.

THIS IS the significance of its refusal to step aside while steel industry negotiators remain free to lock horns, if they choose, or to negotiate a new contract that might be regarded as inflationary by the administration.

This is what United Steelworkers and steel management have learned about industrial relations under the Kennedy administration—that the federal government now thinks of itself as one of the parties of industrial negotiation. It is not a referee, an arbiter, a conciliator, or a negotiator, but a member of the negotiating team self-appointed to act as team chairman and to call meetings and prescribe procedures.

When this new role finally is understood, it will be a safe bet that many a labor leader who plumped for the Democrats in 1960 is going to yearn for the freedom labor leaders enjoyed under the Eisenhower administration, which thought government should step in only to break deadlocks.

This Must Be Co-Existence

It's supposed to be gratifying news that the State Department and its counterpart in Moscow have signed a new cultural agreement boosting the number of exchange visits that will be allowed.

It is gratifying news.

We hope the Russians share our satisfaction in learning by first-hand acquaintance that there is no visible difference between Americans and themselves. They do some things exceedingly well, such as dancing. We do well in basketball and sprinting; they do well in long-distance running and chess.

Their women athletes are rougher and tougher than ours. Their ballerinas also are the most, but we have an edge in actresses and good-looking girls. They are first rate in classical music, but we originated and perfected jazz, one thing the Russians never claimed they invented.

In a thousand ways, more or less, we have learned that the Russians are like us, except in political ideology. They have learned we are like them, except in political ideology. It's something like knowing that in the United States Democrats and Republicans are alike, until you get to the touchy area of their political differences.

So, as far as possible you skirt the touchy area and concentrate on things that can be discussed without setting off fireworks. This is co-existence.

To be sure, many people mistrust co-existence because they say it merely hides what the Russians intend to do in the long run; namely, make the world safe for communism. It does behoove us to be careful about that, but it behooves the Russians to be careful too, because what Americans intend to do in the long run is to make the world safe for capitalism.

If it weren't for that, Americans and Russians could get along almost as well as Republicans and Democrats, thanks to cultural exchanges that have revealed they have everything in common, except politics.

Survival Comes First

Even the best-laid political plan can come a cropper.

The U.S. House of Representatives proved it when it killed a carefully nursed bill to add three seats in the House and thus save the political skins of incumbents in Missouri, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania, which will lose one seat each in 1963 because of the 1960 census and the new statehood of Alaska and Hawaii.

The immediate cause of death, it developed later, was a floor amendment resulting from a political deal between the Democratic sponsor of the bill and the Republican leader of the House.

The amendment would have required either that the three state legislatures meet and redistrict or that all the seats from those three states be filled in statewide election.

THIS SCARED silly all the 52 incumbents from Missouri, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania, who would find it strange, expensive and potentially dangerous to run at-large instead of in the security of the districts where they have run and won before.

Among them, incidentally, is the speaker, who indicated he was not about to honor a gentleman's agreement with an act of Congress. This suggests even politicians sometimes are horrified at the things they do.

So much for the immediate cause of death. The chronic ailment afflicting all matters of legislative organization is that they are left to the legislators themselves.

The legislative branch at any level of government can tamper with the executive or judicial branches, but neither of those branches can fiddle with the legislative limb.

This is the reason most states suffer from inequities in legislative representation. It is the reason many state legislatures fail to redistrict their congressional seats despite the most pressing and logical demand.

LEGISLATORS often see it as their duty to legislate other politicians out of jobs but feel an equally strong sense of duty to protect their own. This situation stems from pure partisanship, but becomes nonpartisan in the maneuvering.

Such was the case in the U.S. House last week. The nation is as well off with 435 instead of 438 congressmen, so few tears will be shed over the death of the expansion bill.

But the chronic ailment that afflicts legislative organization everywhere remains uncured.

By H. I. Phillips

foolish questions. But to millions dependent on such transportation situation is no joke.

Roy Cohn, who won fame as McCarthy Committee counsel, is lawyer for new bus line owner and in advice to his employer appears to have switched from "Answer yes or no" to "Answer no, positively."

Mayor Wagner, who has more troubles than any burgomaster in country, declared war on new owner of bus lines and looks to legislation to prove that, while a Texan has a right to do business in Gotham, he is not entitled to play cowboy with the public, City Hall or bus drivers.

"Have bus line, won't travel" is never a popular slogan. Bus drivers' lot is not a happy one. Each driver has to do a job that for generations of surface transportation was done by two men. They can be gruff and tough. But, considering strains and stresses, it's a wonder driver can finish single trip with smile left in system.

It is one of the few strikes in transportation history where the owner and advisers made the strikers' case look good. (Taxi! Taxi!)

But Do You Mind Speaking a Little Louder?

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

Jimmy Hoffa's Teamsters' Union has so many attorneys, he appears to be running the nation's biggest law firm with a union attached. Thus there is the impression it is always high noon and he and Bob Kennedy are dueling in the sun. Not so. There is no vendetta. No one is picking on the teamsters. There is — thanks to the "goldfish bowl" Labor - Management Reporting and Disclosure Act — a constant federal surveying of some 52,300 unions, big and small, local and international.

Nobody is getting tough with anybody. But cases are being cracked by John Holcombe, commissioner of the Bureau of Labor - Management Reports and by his staff of many ex-FBI agents and IBM computers.

Between this division of the Labor Department and the Justice Department enough work has been done now to startle the nation with a series of indictments.

THESE WILL make the headlines in New York City, Miami, several parts of Michigan and in points west.

These are "til, grand jury secrets. But enough is around to show that one president of a smaller international union has paid real fancy with almost $50,000 of the working Joe's funds. Others have been in more deals than a Las Vegas blackjack card handler. Others will be shown tied in with multi-million dollar loans out of pension funds.

Commissioner Holcombe is charged ry of discussing these. If he were more tight lipped he'd dissect the stem of his ubiquitous pipe. But he does open up enough to point out that at least 42,000 of the 52,300 reports filed in his "goldfish bowl" by local and international unions appear thoroughly accurate. The rest have been returned for further information.

He wants no impression given — and correct he is — which would indict the entire mass or impugn its honesty.

What should be disclosed is the value of the Reporting and Disclosure Act passed Sept. 14, 1959. Since then there have been 9,199 violations probed. Of these there have been 38 cases of embezzlement of union funds brought into the courts.

CONVICTIONS of 25 men resulted. They stole from their trade union brethren — from the men who trusted them. This is morally as well as criminally offensive. The sums have ranged from $43,000 to $13,000 and on down to $770. One case was acquitted, three dismissed and nine are pending.

There was much gnashing of teeth in some labor circles when the law was passed. But it has stood the clean unions in good stead — and has begun giving the infested ones long overdue doses.

No harm is done to a telegraphers' union or any impeccable union if the government finds a loner sticking grubby fingers into the dues receipts.

It saves them a scandal such as hit the United Mine Workers when the government arrested a district president on charges of involvement in the disappearance of almost $400,000 from an Eastern Pennsylvania bank. Earlier action could have nipped that one and not inflicted pain on John Lewis in this era of his life.

There also have been indictments of hotel carrier officials, hotel union men, one in the woodworkers, the chemical union (not the one in Denver) and the papermakers.

THERE WAS a fascinating case involving an International Longshoremen's Association local official. This happened in Brooklyn, where a lot more than trees grow. There are some pier facilities there mighty vital to this land and distribution of goods to the Caribbean, Latin America and Europe—including military bases.

It is illegal for a waterfront local to permit an ex-convict to hold office if it wishes to collect dues. Yet Longshoremen's Local 1277 there had such a hood on its payroll. To conceal him, the local's president, Joe Colozzo, did not include the ex-convict's name on the report which must be filed with the labor - management "goldfish bowl" section Colozzo, furthermore, inserted names of men who did not hold office.

Recently a three-count criminal "information" was filed in U.S. district court charging them with filing false papers with the secretary of labor; misrepresentation of facts and failing to disclose material facts.

All this information should have been correctly filed on Forms LM-1 and LM-2 — the Labor Organization Information Report and the Annual Financial Report. Such documents now can be seen in 24 regional offices throughout the country.

Which is as it should be — the people have the right to know.

Call for Morality

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Purpose of U.S. Foreign Policy Is Controversial

A look around the world today causes many a person to remark that things have never seemed so troubled—as if something new in the way of human friction has been introduced.

Actually the world has seen much more trouble—some times and it has struggled for centuries with the very same conflicts of purpose and ambition. Indeed, impatience for a quick solution is in itself not novel.

Even as far back as the 1890s the Czar of the Russian empire was talking about disarmament and proposing international agreements. As for wars and threats of wars, these have been almost constant.

What is most controversial in this country today perhaps is the direction and purpose of American policies toward the rest of the world.

There are plenty of people in the United States—sometimes called isolationists—who oversimplify the present situation by regarding it as a forerunner of world government. This really is at the root of their antipathy to the United Nations.

If ever there was a time when national sovereignty, independence and self-determination were imprinted on the minds of people everywhere, it is today.

The truth is that the pressure upon the United Nations to develop some formula for preserving order in the world is not by any means a trend toward world government but really a desperate effort to find some way to keep sovereign nations from impairing the independence and autonomy of each other in countries large and small.

The fact that a vote is given in the U.N. General Assembly to every nation that falls itself independent, even though its people or its leaders may be by no means sufficiently educated to understand or apply the processes of self-government, is a sign of the drift away from rather than toward world government. It is, unfortunately, more of a drift toward world anarchy.

The big Western powers themselves—the United States, Great Britain and France—have not discovered thus far a formula for getting along with or defeating the imperialism of the Soviet Union.

The worldwide contest, called the cold war, is going on throughout all continents at the instigation of one aggressive government—the Soviet bureaucracy.

The Western group as yet has found no effective way to overcome the infiltration carried on by its avowed enemy. It's the Trojan Horse philosophy of the Soviets—the camouflage of "peaceful coexistence" and "total disarmament" as a means of achieving conquest—which is baffling the free nations

TEMPORARILY at least, the policy of the West is to strengthen its military position at an overwhelming cost and to carry on over the air waves a constant appeal for a true peace. This is why meetings between heads of states or their foreign secretaries in big international conferences—although currently devoid of real hope of agreement—are nevertheless pursued zealously.

The basic and fundamental issues, however, do not disappear notwithstanding the professions of high purpose and statements of cordiality and friendliness proclaimed on such occasions. Underneath the frictions of world politics are issues of unchanging materialism, in which the terms common market, low tariffs and foreign aid are emphasized.

Ironically enough, nationalism—whether in Algeria, in the Congo, in Southeast Asia, or in Europe itself—is largely a grab for national resources by groups inside and outside each area. An altruistic concept, euphemistically called an alliance for progress, is supposed to woo and win Latin America but it is becoming there more and more an instrument of internal politics and materialistic pressures.

A similar bait is held out to the new nations of Africa. Unquestionably all the underdeveloped countries need financial and technical help. When have they not needed such aid?

TODAY the rivalry between Moscow and Washington—each side offering help as a sort of bribe—presents a new kind of struggle. Materialistic factors designed to gain the support of the smaller countries have superseded any thought of waiting for the evolution of self-reliance.

Morality has a hard time exerting its influence in international affairs. There is today not just the absence of an international formula directed by the conscience of man but also a lack of morality in the politics of autonomous nations themselves.

The governing authority nowadays ranges from various forms of dictatorship and tyrannical autocracy to the so-called systems of democracy wherein the politicians too often still control or seek to dominate the national economy.

One can become saddened, moreover, by the trend toward more and more immorality in our own politics. Elections in free America too often are contests between political machines, organizations, an selfish pressure groups which seek to outdo each other in confusing, if not controlling, the voters' minds.

The churches have never had a bigger attendance than they have today but an acceptance of common honesty and moral force in the world has never seemed to be more acutely needed.

Praise For Science Fair

A visit to the recent Science Fair at the Junior High developed the following facts:

One hundred fifty students from the sixth to ninth grade participated.

All projects are selected and completed by the student; this in addition to regular school work.

Classes of three hours length are held on Saturday in the gym. Average attendance is 85 students. Three are lectures by various qualified people on scientific problems. There is a question period but no work on projects.

The variety of projects was amazing as well as the various exhibits and the excellent work on them was superb for students in their age group.

All in all the entire fair was a credit to Walter Newton, the instructor, the Board of Education and the various organizations sponsoring; also to the many who gave their time to lecture to the students.

Congratulations to all and especially the students who entered into a competition at Steubenville and brought home several winners in their first competition.

Carl H. Juergens,

Thoughts

And to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.—Ephesians 3:19

God be thanked for that good and perfect gift, the gift unspokeable: His life, His love, His very self in Jesus Christ.—Maltbie Babcock.

Matter of Fact

The word "bastille" has become synonymous with prison. But it wasn't until the beginning of the 17th century that it acquired this connotation. Originally the word was applied to any fortified building, forming a part of a system of defense. When, during the reign of Louis XIII, a part of the fortifications of Paris was used as a place of confinement, the bastille acquired its infamous meaning.

So They Say

The kind of situation toward which we are heading is basically unstable—that any rocking of the boat, whether accidental, or by the action of a third power, or by escalation, can trigger it (nuclear war) . . . We are trapped in the arms race.

News of Interest to Farmers

Farmers' Memo to Congress

Farmers want fewer federal controls over agriculture. Practically none surveyed felt the government has solved the farm problem, and many prefer a return to a supply- and demand "free market."

These demands for fewer government restrictions came from farmers asked: "What would you want most from this session of Congress?" Results of the survey are reported in Successful Farming magazine.

The magazine surveyed 27 farmers picked at random from several farming "Heart States." Leaders of the two major farm organizations were excluded. Foremost among the farmers' replies were demands for fewer controls and more individual initiative.

Here are their opinions:

Robert I. Everingham, La Fayette, N. Y.: It concerns me to see the way the farm program is going. Congress should know by now that endless controls are not the answer. I do not like to see the federal government get deeply involved in the farm picture.

Charles Mentzer, Downingtown, Pa.: I'd like to see some of the government control taken out of farming—would like to return more to the law of supply and demand. The government has taken the farmer too far away from this economic law.

C. J. Vangsness, Kenyon, Minn.: There's still no way to get around the law of supply and demand, so I say let's get rid of subsidies and controls and get the government out of the farmer's business.

Bernard W. Potter, Truxton, N. Y.: Economists keep saying we're going to have controls and more controls, almost as though we can't avoid them. I don't believe this. . . . The less they do the better.

Lloyd Dayton, Port Clinton, O.: I think we need the government out of the farming business. Price supports have built up a false market and have encouraged overproduction.

The survey revealed that farmers favor greater economy in government, a reduction or abolition of crop surpluses, and an end to the wage-price inflation spiral. The range of opinion was wide:

Henry Rott of Elgin, Minn.: I'd like to see Congress get rid of a lot of old committees without making any new ones.

Miles Davies, Deer Trail, Colo.: I'd like to see a law passed to limit election campaign expenses for federal offices and provide for these expenses from federal funds. It is a little tiresome to see so many offices filled by the very wealthy. . . .

One farmer favored tariff reductions.

Rodney H. Sellen of Homer, N. Y.: I don't feel the least bit unpatriotic buying a foreign product. If the (other) country's labor can produce quality equal to ours and maintain a good living standard, I say go ahead with tariff reductions.

Witmer's Brown Swiss Is Tops

A Registered Brown Swiss junior two-year-old, bred and owned by Paul D. Witmer of Columbiana, recently completed a record which makes her the top producer of the breed for her age on 2X milking.

According to the Brown Swiss

Cattle Breeder's Association of America, this heifer began her record at 2 years and 3 months of age and produced 17,759.8 pounds of milk 4.51 per cent, 801.09 lbs. butterfat in 365 days on 2X milking.

This new class leader, Rolling Meadows Royal Phoebe, is a product of Lee's Hill Farm, New Vernon, N.J.

The Witmers at Rolling Meadows Farm have one of the good farmer owned herds in the nation and have had other high producing cows that got national recognition.

The record was supervised by the Ohio State University as part of the official testing programs of the Brown Swiss Cattle Breeders Association.

Malmbsberry Named

C. A. Malmbsberry of RD 1, Beloit, is one of the farm spokesmen representing 20 of Ohio's Congressional Districts named recently from local Farm Bureau elections to visit their congressmen and senators in Washington, D.C., April 9-11.

Marketing of Potatoes

Should the proposed national marketing agreement and order for potatoes be adopted by growers this year they still would not gain by planting more potatoes than usual.

E. C. Wittmeyer, Ohio State University extension horticulturist, points out that should a marketing order be put on potatoes this year, growers' marketing allotments would be based on the highest amounts marketed in two of the last three years, that is 1959, 1960 and 1961.

The year 1962 would not be considered in determining bases either for this year or for future years, Wittmeyer explains. Consequently, there would be no advantage to increasing 1962 acreage to gain a higher base.

The proposed agreement and order applies only to growers producing more than two acres of potatoes.

Ohio potato growers, processors, and dealers will have an opportunity to present their views on a proposed national marketing agreement and order for potatoes at a hearing called by the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Toledo, March 19, 20, and 21.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The farm real estate market has recovered from a 1960 slump to carry land prices to a record high.

The Agriculture Department reported today that the value of the nation's farm real estate was $134.8 billion last Nov. 1, an increase of a little more than $5 billion in 12 months. It said a further increase appeared likely this year.

The average value on an acre of farm land on Nov. 1 was 179 per cent of the 1947-49 average. The previous high was 171 per cent on Nov. 1, 1959.

A 9 per cent increase in net farm income last year and a shortage of land available for purchase were said to have been the major factors in the latest upturn. The department said real estate dealers report they have 50 per cent fewer listings of farms for sale than a year ago.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Wheat owned by Uncle Sam under surplus farm programs is fairly well dispersed throughout the country, and would be readily available in event of a nuclear attack.

The approximately 1.1 billion bushels owned by the Agriculture Department on Jan. 1 was stored, in appreciable quantities, in 23 states from New York on the east coast to Washington, Oregon and California on the west.

Cooking is easy... with a Flameless Electric Range

Future homemakers soon learn what Mom already knows... whether you bake, broil, roast or boil you get the same good results every time. That's because electric heat is so accurately controlled you don't guess or trust to luck... you always get the same heat at the same switch setting.

You'll save time and work, too, because electric heat is clean as electric light, so pots and pans stay bright and clean... curtains and walls stay cleaner far longer. And, because only an electric range oven is insulated on all six sides, your kitchen stays cooler when you bake. Surface cooking is cooler, too, because the heat goes directly into the bottom of the pan... no billowing up around the sides. Buy an electric range and you'll get these and many more of the extra advantages you get only with flameless electric cooking.

Women buy electric ranges because they're Flameless... not because they cost less!

Soap and Water Kills Germs

Q—I am a newlywed and my husband and I are soon to move into our own home. What are the best things with which to stock our medicine cabinet? I mean such things as antiseptics, mouth washes, soaps, dentifrices, etc.

A — Dear Mrs. Newlywed, you've really put me on the spot. I'm going to duck a direct answer to your question by telling you merely what I do in my own home.

I know too much about bacteriology to have much regard for the use of antiseptics, however powerful, on the skin or in accessible body cavities. Let me explain. Almost any antiseptic you mention will kill almost any bacterium you may choose under laboratory conditions.

You need only pour the antiseptic in the test tube that contains the bug and, if you leave it for a sufficient length of time, the contents of the tube will be sterilized. Exceptions to this rule exist in cases where the bug has an armored suit (tubercle bacilli). Or where the organism is equipped with a hard shell spore (tetanus bacilli).

Now, for present purposes, let us forget about the exceptions and address ourselves only to the antiseptic that kills run-of-the-mill organisms under laboratory conditions.

When we change the conditions of the experiment and consider the effects of the antiseptic in the living organism, we are dealing with an entirely different set of circumstances. Perhaps, the same differences that exist between shooting clay pigeons at a booth in the county fair and engaging enemy soldiers in guerilla warfare.

IN THE FIRST PLACE, we must zero in on the enemy and that's almost impossible in a punctured or gaping wound or in the depths of a body cavity where there are all sorts of microscopic caves in which bugs may hole up.

In the second place, even if we made contact with the enemy, we'd have to maintain that contact for a sufficient length of time to kill him, not just wound him. Thirdly, we'd have to maintain that contact in sufficient strength for the sufficient length of time to inflict the mortal wound. In laboratory terms, that's called the time-dose relationship.

Then, finally, we have to kill the bugs with a dose that won't prove injurious to our own cells and tissues. That's called the therapeutic-toxic index. For, if we kill our own cells in the process, we're not only doing harm to ourselves but we're providing food for invading bugs to live on, too.

Thus, you see, antiseptics as used by you are faced with almost impossible conditions. If they don't kill all the bugs, the survivors will breed at a fantastic rate every 20 minutes or so. And even if all are slaughtered, fresh armies will be introduced from other skin areas. Or, in the case of body cavities like mouth and nose, with each breath.

WHAT TO DO, THEN? Quite simply, place your faith in running water and soap. Scrub the unbroken skin with a firm brush just as the surgeon does in the operating room. If you've an open wound, flush it long and hard under a tap. Dry it with a clean towel or tissue. Protect it with a sterile dressing.

If you've a closed or punctured wound, especially if there's a chance that it's been contaminated by soil, show it to your doctor. He may have to open it wide to let air in.

And, if he decides you need an antiseptic, he'll give you one that acts through the blood stream thus directing fire outward from the depths of the wound. Instead of merely at the wound surface. In brief, for your shopping list, I recommend plain soap, a scrubbing brush and a couple of barrels of elbow grease.

BOY, IS BEATEN CLEVELAND (AP)—A 15-year-old boy was beaten outside East Technical High School Monday by three youths who earlier created a disturbance in Kennard Junior High School, police said.

William Harris, East Tech football coach, broke up the fight and identified one of the attackers as an 18-year-old with a police record. He was arrested and police sought the accomplices named by the suspect. Both are 18, too.

Police said they were told the three entered a typing classroom at Kennard about 3 p.m., and one, who appeared to be intoxicated, swore at the teacher and the students.

They Walked With Christ

PETER

"And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone."

—John 1:42

Before meeting Jesus, this disciple was known as Simon ("hearer"). He was the son of a successful fisherman named Jona.

His brother Andrew, a follower of John the Baptist, had been present when the evangelist had baptized Jesus, and when he had said, "Behold the Lamb of God, that taketh away the sin of the world."

Andrew hurried to tell Simon of the event. "We have found the Messiah," he declared excitedly, and took Simon to see Jesus.

Jesus, immediately upon seeing him, recognized him, and gave him the surname by which he was ever afterward to be known—Peter, the rock.

Peter was not merely a "big fisherman" living in a rude hut by the sea, but a well-to-do ship owner, who left a life of comfortable circumstances to follow Jesus.

But before the Resurrection and Ascension, when he set out to establish the Church in the world, there is little doubt that Peter still thought of the Messiah as the political figure foretold by the Jewish prophets.

In the apostle's evangelical history, his character is portrayed with great clarity.

Yet there were contradictions in his make-up, as there are in that of all men. Complete renunciation of the world was not easy for him. When Jesus said, "It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God," Peter was a little dismayed.

"Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?"

As one writer has observed, "He was called to work for the Kingdom of God, and he thought as men do."

Peter's challenge was, in fact, the challenge that has faced all men in all ages, including our own. He had the same weaknesses, and some of the same strength. He fell asleep on the night of Gethsemane, following the Last Supper. In overweening self-confidence, he cried: "Lord, I am ready to go with thee both into prison and to death," then denied that he knew the Man.

But in his strength he defied the Roman emperors, and according to tradition, was crucified head downward by Nero in Rome.

The church he established has lasted almost 2000 years, and is stronger than ever today.

Europe as atom-free zones from which nuclear weapons would be barred.

Gromyko's letters as usual said nothing about measures to enforce such nuclear bans.

West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder joined the roster of Western statesmen meeting informally today with Gromyko to discuss major conflicts between East and West.

West Germany will not attend the disarmament conference, but from his hotel in nearby Lausanne Schroeder has been holding a busy round of talks with Western leaders to keep the viewpoint of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government before them.

The Berlin dispute dominated Rusk's talks with Gromyko Monday. One official said much of the discussion dwelt on the Communist harassment in the Berlin air corridors and in the city itself.

Chances Slim For Truce In Algeria Today

EVIAN, France (AP)—Persistent reports circulated that the French and the Algerian rebels would sign a cease-fire agreement today. But informants on both sides cast doubt on the reports.

The semi-official French News Agency reported that the end of the 7½-year war in Algeria would be announced today. An informant close to the French delegation said, "I would not like to make a guess like that."

A source in the Algerian delegation said there were still several points to be ironed out.

The Algerian source said agreement still had not been reached on the makeup of the interim provisional regime to govern Algeria until the self-determination referendum which is expected to make the North African territory independent.

The French Ministry of Information in a communique Monday night said no date had yet been fixed for signing of an agreement.

The nine-man Algerian rebel delegation and the 12-man French delegation negotiated for nearly nine hours Monday. The session ran about three hours longer than the previous meetings, and word immediately spread that a final accord had been reached.

Sources close to the negotiations said later there was a good deal of work to complete. They added, however, that the peace conference was in its last phases.

President Charles de Gaulle is expected to proclaim the cease-fire formally in a radio-television speech within 24 hours of the signing of the agreement.

The agreement will chart the complex course Algeria will follow to become independent after 131 years of French rule.

It includes guarantees for the one million Europeans who live in Algeria with some nine million Moslems; establishment of a provisional government of French and Moslems to rule until independence after the self-determination vote; amnesty for Algerian nationalist prisoners; provision for France to retain military bases in Algeria; arrangements for a provisional police force and for gradual withdrawal of most of the 400,000 French troops in Algeria, and sharing of the Sahara oil and mineral wealth.

French troops fired on a Moslem mob in the west Algerian port of Arzew Monday left 13 persons dead and 18 wounded.

NO DECISION DUE

CINCINNATI (AP) — No decision on proposed bail bonding practice changes is likely until next month, says a committee of municipal court judges studying the matter. Bondsmen contend the proposed changes—total forfeiture in bond skipping case and some rate reductions—might put them out of business and lead to unlicensed bonding.

Council Delays Action On Hiring School Patrolman

A proposal to hire an extra adult school patrolman for duty during school hours at the Franklin, Maple and Aetna St. intersection was referred to the traffic and safety committee for further study at a special meeting of City Council Monday night.

Several councilmen said they had not been informed of this through the newspaper, and they wanted to give it further study to determine whether or not there might be some other intersections needing an adult patrolman just as badly as the one at Franklin, Maple and Aetna.

The refusal of Council to enact the legislation last night came as a setback to Mayor Dean B. Cranmer who had already hired a patrolman who worked at the Franklin, Maple and Aetna intersection on Monday. He was released today after Council failed to pass the legislation last night.

Mayor Cranmer said the additional adult patrolman was hired by him after members of Council's three-man finance committee told him at a meeting Saturday morning that the legislation would be passed Monday night. The measure was voted down by a 5-2 margin.

Renovation

Recommended improvements at Reilly School would take $1,800. Top items here are $500 for window frame and sill repair and $500 for additional playground equipment.

Needing the most improvements, according to the report, is the Junior High building. Estimated cost here is $24,300 with the top item being $7,000 for new lighting in all rooms where it has not been improved recently. New lighting was installed in 11 rooms recently at a cost of $6,600.

Also requested for Junior High are $3,000 to blacktop an area behind the maintenance shop for a playground and $2,500 to improve the area in front of the building, including landscaping.

Improvements sought at the new Senior High Building would cost $12,675. They call for $5,000 to blacktop the approach to the school from Lincoln Ave., $5,000 to build an exit from the parking lot to E. 9th St., $1,200 to equip two additional classrooms, $1,000 to resurface the parking lot with gravel and $475 to landscape the courtyard.

At Reilly Stadium, Fadely lists two improvements needed at an estimated cost of $20,500. They include $18,000 for new lighting and $2,500 to repair bad concrete in the stands.

Improvements totaling $2,225 have been made at the Stadium recently. These include the following:

Ten new lights, $1,000; changed high jump pit and discus ring, $300; new cinders for track, $25; replaced seat practice, $200; reseeded both practice and playing areas, $250; graded bank at practice field, $300; and removed apple trees, $150.

distribute material promoting the Social Security approach to care of the aged.

The National Council of Senior Citizens is one of the major vehicles for pushing the campaign. The council was launched only last year but already claims the backing of a half million men and women around the country, many of them associated with local Golden Age clubs and other organizations of senior citizens.

The council is an outgrowth of Senior Citizens for Kennedy. Former Rep. Aime Forand, D-R.I., headed that unit in the 1960 presidential campaign and is chairman of the revived council. Forand was an ardent advocate of a broad scale plan to defray costs of caring for older citizens while he served in Congress.

Secretary of Welfare Abraham Ribicoff has been speaking frequently around the country in support of the Social Security method and attacking the AMA for its opposition.

Castro

neged on his promise last July that food rationing in Cuba would end toward the middle of the year.

He said nationwide rationing of rice and all types of beans—basic items in the Cuban diet—and of lard and cooking oils will begin next Monday.

Every Cuban will be limited to six pounds of rice and 1½ pounds of each type of beans a month, he said. Lard and cooking oils had already been rationed in most of Cuba.

Castro said soap, toothpaste and detergents will go on the ration list in the major cities. The limit will be one bar of toilet soap and one box of detergent a month. The three items have long been scarce.

The stiffest measures will affect Havana's more than one million residents. Beef will be limited to three-quarters of a pound per person a week. Vegetables, eggs, milk, fish and chicken also will be rationed, but milk cutbacks will be delayed a week "because the milk is a little more complicated."

Havana radio said children 7 and under will be allowed a daily allotment of one liter of milk, or slightly more than a quart. Others will be allowed one liter daily per 5 persons or six cans (size unspecified) of evaporated or condensed milk a month, presumably per 5 persons.

Quantities of other rationed items were not specified.

Castro said food supplies for restaurants also will be curtailed as much as 50 per cent to prevent comparatively better off Cubans from circumventing rationing.

"Those who have money have been eating in the restaurants," he said, "and they haven't felt the scarcities."

Castro put most of the blame for the shortages on "Yankee imperialism" and the hell he said he inherited from the regime of ex-President Fulgencio Batista, whom he toppled Jan. 1, 1959.

Castro admitted his own regime had complicated the country's problems by driving away some of Cuba's most skilled manpower. More than 200,000 persons have left Cuba since 1959.

ness and dependence are not transformed into strength and self-reliance, we can expect only chaos, and then tyranny, to follow."

The only major change in the aid program this year had been announced previously. This is a request that Congress authorize a $3 billion fund to be used over the next four years for the Alliance for Progress in Latin America. Kennedy asked Congress to appropriate $600 million of the total for the coming year and said about $500 million would go to loans and $100 million to grants.

Supt. Smith reported that the Salem Athletic Department sent flowers for Dave Williams, educator and veteran basketball tournament and district track official, who died Sunday morning at his home in Youngstown.

The superintendent also reported on a meeting of the American Association of School Administrators he and Assistant Supt. D. M. Fadely attended last month in Atlantic City.

One of the items the superintendent mentioned was that a minimum annual scholastic term of 200 days was suggested to broaden and deepen the educational program. Presently, Salem has 180 actual school days in a year.

Board member Bryce Kendall suggested that Salem work toward being one of the first communities in the country to keep its school facilities in operation the year round. Supt. Smith said that a readjustment in teachers' salaries would be one of several items that would have to be ironed out before such a program could be put into effect here.

Salem has increased its actual number of school days by five during the past three years.

A financial report on the Salem Senior High School activities fund showed that as of Feb. 28, the basketball fund had a balance of $11,484.36. The football fund balance was $6,223.05. Track was carrying a deficit of $618.47.

The report revealed that the various class funds had the following balances: 1962 — $1,735; 1963 — $536; 1964 — $180.

The Quaker Bi-Weekly, student publication, had a deficit of $620, while the Quaker Annual showed a $901 surplus as of Feb. 28.

The next regular meeting of the Board of Education was moved back one week to April 16. It will be held in the junior high school library.

The Other Day

When a fellow asked us whether we ever heard of a "plexus in the dermis" if he hadn't been smiling we would have called for the man in the white coat. But then he explained that it is simply technical language for saying how in man's nervous system the sense of touch is derived from a network of nerve ends in the skin, which send their sense-of-touch-messages from the skin through the network of nerves to the brain. Plexus: a network; dermis: skin.

Whenever we think of the make-up of the human body we are simply floored with its thousands of mysteries, too much for mere man, its owner, even to start to imagine how it all works.

We are reminded of something once said by Dr. George Gallup, the famous researcher, who said, "I could prove God statistically. Take the human body alone... the chance that all the functions of the individual would just happen is a statistical monstrosity."

It makes us feel by comparison that our business isn't complicated, but actually, by man's standards, it is, and we've spent years specializing in every facet of it so that we can really serve you for your maximum benefit. PARKER CHEVROLET CO., 292 West State St. Telephone ED 2-4684.

Jones Blasts Fourth Homer As Braves Humble Reds 5-1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Milwaukee Manager Birdie Tebbets doesn't claim everything he touches turns to gold, but he's beginning to think he has found a golden boy to plug up one of his gaping outfield holes.

Mack Jones, 23, up from Louisville, has hit four home runs in the Braves' three exhibition contests. He also has driven in eight runs and has been conducting himself as though he is made to order.

As a result of the expansion of the National League to 10 teams, the Braves lost flycatchers Frank Thomas and John Demerit to the New York Mets and Al Spangler to the Houston Colts.

That left Hank Aaron and Lee Maye to man two of the spots, and Tebbets had to start scrambling for another replacement.

Jones, a 6-1, 180-pound lefty swinger, hit .326 with 11 homers at Louisville last year. Toward the end of the season the Braves brought him up for a look, and he compiled an undistinguished .231 mark in 28 games with nary a homer.

Jones clouted No. 4 Monday and drove in another run in the Braves' 5-1 decision over the Cincinnati Reds at Bradenton, Fla.

Catcher Bob Uecker also hit a homer, and Howie Bedell, Jones No. 1 challenge for the vacant left-field spot, had a pair of singles.

While Tebbets was rubbing his hands in glee at his new find, two other members of the lodge, Casey Stengel of the Mets and Billy Hitchcock of the Baltimore Orioles, came close to wringing their mitts in despair.

Stengel almost lost rookie outfielder Jim Hickman, who was struck high on the right cheekbone by Ray Herbert of the Chicago White Sox. Hickman, 24, went down when the ball hit and was taken to a Sarasota hospital.

X-rays proved negative, and physicians said they were certain he was not hurt badly. He was to return to the club today.

Hitchcock saw star pitcher Milt Pappas taken to a hospital, where he was operated on for appendicitis. Pappas, who compiled 3.03 last year on a 13-9 record, complained of pains Monday morning and was operated on a few hours later.

The Mets at least won their game, whipping the White Sox, 8-4. Don Zimmer collected four hits, and Elio Chacon connected for a bases-loaded triple.

Pappas wasn't the Orioles' only loss of the day. They also dropped a 3-1 decision to the Kansas City A's at West Palm Beach.

The world-champion New York Yankees and the Los Angeles Angels, both sporting 3-0 records, are the only undefeated teams on the exhibition circuit. The Yanks whipped the Washington Senators 7-3 at Pompano Beach, with Elston Howard connecting for two 390-foot home runs.

The Angels whipped the Boston Red Sox, also by 7-3, at Palm Springs, Calif. Ken McBride limited the Sox to one hit in his 3-inning stint.

The Cleveland Indians had to go 12 innings before Chuck Essegian tripled and Jim Mahoney lifted a sacrifice fly to edge the Chicago Cubs 5-4 at Mesa, Ariz.

The Detroit Tigers sent seven runs across in the seventh inning to outlast the Minnesota Twins, 9-7, at Orlando, and the San Francisco Giants broke open a 1-all game in the eighth inning and ran away from the Colts 6-1 at Apache Junction, Ariz.

The Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the Philadelphia Phillies 6-5 at Fort Myers, and the Los Angeles Dodgers halted the St. Louis Cardinals 5-4 at St. Petersburg.

Two Squads Tied For 1st Place In Volleyball

Franklin Market moved into a first place tie with Electric Furnace Experimental in the Adult Volleyball League's second round after it swept to three wins in action Monday night in the Memorial Building.

Both teams are currently deadlocked with 19-2 records with six rounds of play remaining in the second half of league play. Post Office copped the first round championship on a 39-3 record after being forced into a playoff with Franklin Market.

Franklin's wins last night were over Flintstones 15-4, 15-3 and 15-7. In other action, P.A.'s dumped Electric Furnace Engineering 15-4 and 15-9, but lost the third match 11-13, and Dell's Bike Shop forfeited its three tilts to Jaycees.

In third place in the second round is Sevakene at 18-3, while Post Office still remains in contention in fourth position with a 15-3 mark.

NICE DEBUT

LOS ANGELES—(NEA)—Johnny James of the Los Angeles Angels' pitching staff forced Clint Courtney to hit into a triple play in 1958 in his first major league appearance with the New York Yankees.

Stan Musial needs only 30 hits to become the hittingest batter in National League history. He starts the 1962 season with 3,401. Honus Wagner had 3,430.

The pennant-winning Cincinnati Reds won 10 doubleheaders during the 1961 season, more than any other National League club. The Reds split seven and lost only two.

The Buckeyes of Ohio State are college basketball's No. 1 team for the second straight year.

The Bucks, beaten only twice in the last two years while winning 50, finished first in the final Associated Press poll—a position they've held without interruption since the preseason poll of 1960.

Of 43 voters on the AP's selected nationwide panel, 38 cast a No. 1 ballot for Ohio State. The other five placed the Big Ten champions second, while splitting their first-place votes this way—two to Cincinnati, two to Mississippi State, and one to Kentucky.

On the basis of 10 points for first, 9 for second, 8 for third, etc. Ohio State wound up with 425 points and a clear edge over defending NCAA champion Cincinnati.

In the preseason poll, the experts had picked Ohio State and Cincinnati to finish one-two.

Of the 1961-62 Top Ten, Ohio State, Cincinnati, Kentucky, Bradley, Bowling Green and Colorado have postseason tournament commitments.

The final rankings with first-place votes in parentheses:

1. Ohio State (38) 425

2. Cincinnati (2) 362

3. Kentucky (1) 321

4. Mississippi State (2) 252

5. Bradley 176

6. Kansas State 146

7. Utah 132

8. Bowling Green 100

9. Colorado 62

10. Duke 61

Others receiving votes: Loyola (Chicago), St. John's (N.Y.), Wake Forest, Oregon State, West Virginia, Arizona State University, Duquesne, Utah State, UCLA, Villanova, St. Joseph's (Pa.), Texas Tech, Southern Methodist, Drake, Wisconsin.

Thrashes Orsburn's Market 77-48

Salem Stamping Stays Unbeaten In 'A' Loop

Salem Stamping moved one step closer to the second round championship in the City Class A Basketball League with a resounding 77-48 victory over Orsburn's Market in action Monday night on the Memorial Building hardwood.

Undefeated Stamping is now 7-0 with three games to play in the second round. Still in challenging positions are First National Bank at 6-0, Bricker & Bricker at 5-0, and Old Dutch, the first round champ, at 4-1.

In other action last night, Salem Tech defeated Damascus 71-39 and Berlin (0-7) forfeited its match to Kaiser (2-5).

A 22-point outburst by Stamping in the second quarter proved too much for Orsburn's (4-2) after the two squads were deadlocked 14-all after the first period. The count jumped to 36-20 at halftime and 50-30 after three frames.

Three of the winning quintet hit in double figures, with Bill Pauline leading the way with 27 markers, followed by Jim Foreman's 21 and Fred Ackerman's 14. Jim Summer paced the losers with 17 tallies, while teammate Don Wilson netted 12.

Salem Tech (4-2) led all the way in the battle with Damascus (0-7) by quarter counts of 14-6, 33-16 and 49-23.

Art Breniser featured for the winners with 18 counters, while teammate Don Conser meshed 14. Bob Woolf caged 18 to lead the losers, with Laird Bowersock adding 11.

Purity Dairy Team Wins Bowling Meet

The Purity Dairy team of Salem topped the team championship over the weekend in the Salem Women's Bowling Association's city tournament at Kaiser's Lanes in Columbiana.

The winning team, Capt. Olive Ramsey, Erla Burrier, and Milly Kline of Salem, and Louise Tetlow of Damascus and Min Spear of Washingtonville, rolled a 2,516 actual score with a 417 handicap to cop the crown by 79 pins with a final 2,933 score.

In second place was J&E Record Shop of Columbiana with a 2,854 score, with Dickey's Ideal Dairy in third position with a 2,835 total.

Other teams entered and their scores are as follows:

Citizens Bank of Columbiana, 2,813; Town Tavern of Washingtonville, 2,808; Gray Motor Sales of Salem, 2,796; Kyser's No. 2 of Columbiana, 2,790; Kaiser Brickettes of Columbiana, 2,787; Corey Oil of Columbiana, 2,785; Paul's Pennzoil of Salem, 2,771; Shaffer Ford of Salem, 2,769; Vee-Em Poodies of Columbiana, 2,760; Aldom's Diner of Salem, 2,758, and Rohrer Supply of Columbiana, 2,752.

In the Boosters Division, the Kaiser Brickettes team of Columbiana took the trophy with a 2,787 score, while Midway Motors of New Waterford was second with 2,720 points and the Chan-letettes of Columbiana third at 2,711.

High tournament team games with handicaps were taken by Purity Dairy with a 1,121 and The-ron's of Columbiana with a 1,012 score.

Doubles and singles matches in the tourney will be bowled the next two weekends.

at the Old Country Store

On The Columbiana-Lisbon Road

The workers down here at The Country Store are real happy people. They like their boss and as you know our boss is the lady who pushes the cart. She is a real nice person to work for. Naturally one who chooses a home owned independent store to shop in would be a thoughtful and appreciative person.

New Books at Salem Public Library

FICTION
JUDGMENT DAY by Thomas Chastain. The story of what happened in a small southern town after a Negro is killed by a white man, and the body placed so that it appeared to have been a lynching.
AMAZON KEY by Edward Fisher. A ghost, a beautiful girl, a young newspaperman from the mainland, and the girl's odd relatives all exist on an island off the coast of Florida. Mr. Fisher makes a gay and wicked story of these ingredients.
A KID NOBODY WANTS by Robert Kost. Another funny story - this one about a boy's life in an orphanage.
LETTER TO PHILEMON by Francis and Winthrop Neilson. A novel based on the life of the runaway slave Onesimus for whom the Apostle Paul interceded in his famous letter to Philemon.
CASTLE DOR by Arthur Quiller-Couch and Daphne DuMaurier. This story was begun by Sir Arthur Quiller-Couch, and at his request, completed by Daphne DuMaurier. It is a romantic retelling of the Tristan legend, with a nineteenth century English setting and characters who fulfill the old tale to its bitter ending.
TOO LONG IN THE WEST by Balachandra Rajan. A humorous novel about an Indian girl who has been educated in America. When she gets home to India, she finds that she has been advertised in marriage by her family. What happens when the suitors all gather at her father's house is a lot of fun.

Nationwide Puts Life Insurance Within the Reach of Every Family

Quantity Discounts, Bigger Dividends Help Lower Costs

Among Nationwide's most popular features are (a) "quantity discounts," which progressively lower premiums on each $1,000 of life insurance over $4,000, and (b) increased dividends.

In addition to early cash and loan values, young family men particularly like our Guaranteed Insurability Option. This assures the right to buy additional insurance later on, without medical examination, regardless of health.

Also available as optional extras are Double Indemnity, which doubles a policy's face amount in the event of accidental death, and Disability Waiver of Premium, which cancels premiums falling due after a policyholder has been disabled by accident or illness for six months.

With every Nationwide policy you have a broad selection of settlement options. Many of these allow benefits or cash values to be paid in a choice of annuity-type installments.

The above features, and many more, guarantee you extra value through flexibility that lets your life insurance keep up-to-date with your changing needs and plans.

Your Nationwide agent, a neighbor in your community, is always at your service. He'll review your insurance program with you regularly to make sure its provisions always match your requirements.

Outstanding Values In Business Life Insurance

More and more executives, too, are selecting Nationwide plans for their companies' business life insurance coverage—including key man, sole proprietorship, partnership, and close corporation insurance. Individual-policy pension trust plans are also offered.

Especially advantageous to businessmen is Nationwide's Executive Equity Plan, which features rapidly accumulating cash values resulting in minimum net cost to the purchaser.

A complete range of flexible, low-cost plans is also offered on a group basis, customarily combined with group health coverage in a complete employee benefit program, often partnered with a funded retirement or pension program. Featured among Nationwide's Group coverages are those especially designed for smaller organizations. Available in most states are: MINI-GROUP, a top-benefit plan for firms having 10-49 employees; and EMPLOYEE FAMILY PLAN, a "big company" employee-and-dependents program for groups as small as three.

Also noteworthy is our small-company Retirement Security Plan (RSP), which can provide stockholder-employees with up to $96,000 cash—or $670 per month—at retirement, with all rates and benefits guaranteed for life.

All Nationwide agents are authorized to offer business life insurance protection, and all are backed by experienced Nationwide technical specialists, both at the Home Office and in the field.

Every family now can afford enough life insurance—thanks to Nationwide. Even fathers who think they're "insurance poor" will benefit from a talk with a Nationwide agent. His skill and experience, his interest in serving you best, and his complete range of modern coverages, will mean more protection and added savings for you.

Nationwide Life Insurance Plans Are Designed to Meet Every Need

Whatever your age, earnings and family circumstances, your Nationwide agent will recommend the plan—or combination of plans—that will do the best job for you. Here are just a few of the new Nationwide coverages offered:

For Young Families

For young fathers with limited budgets there's the MODIFIED 3 TO 10 PLAN. Especially designed for the "getting started" years, it offers sharply reduced premiums during the plan's first 10 years. Later, regular premiums are offset by higher dividends and accumulated cash values.

Also for young family men is Nationwide's FAMILY INCOME PLAN, which provides maximum protection during children's dependent years. Then, after the children are grown, your basic protection continues, but at a lower premium. Many families, too, prefer the savings offered by Nationwide's all-in-one FAMILY POLICY, which insures all the family in a single plan. Dad has the greatest protection, while Mom and the youngsters are insured for smaller amounts.

For New Homeowners

For the homeowner, there's the low-premium MORTGAGE PROTECTION plan. Its face amount decreases gradually year-by-year, along with your mortgage—but there's always enough insurance to cover your unpaid balance.

Your Nationwide man is also equipped with a full line of streamlined ORDINARY (or WHOLE) LIFE and ENDOWMENT plans, which provide permanent protection plus cash values you may use at retirement. He also offers a choice of low cost TERM (or TEMPORARY) insurance plans, which may be converted later to a permanent plan without medical examination.

Full details on all Nationwide plans are available through your local Nationwide agent. He has only one purpose: to provide you with the best protection at the lowest possible cost.

Your Nationwide Agent

Your neighborhood Nationwide representative is fully licensed under the insurance laws of your state. This means that his qualifications to serve you have been thoroughly examined and approved. In addition, his knowledge of life insurance and how it may best work for you is continually expanded through systematic training and refresher courses by Nationwide. Thus, you'll always find him a sound businessman and a valuable friend—and you may talk with him as you would your family doctor.

Progressive Organization Offers Complete New Choice Of Budget-Priced Policies

In keeping with its principle of providing the finest protection at the lowest possible cost, Nationwide Insurance recently streamlined its entire life insurance portfolio. The best features of standard policies have been retained, the range and scope of coverages broadened, new policies developed and set in a rate structure second to none within the insurance industry.

Greater Values and Savings

Result? Budget-conscious families can now buy more of the protection today's cost-of-living demands. Young fathers can now afford the insurance they need during the family's growing years.

Today, through Nationwide, you can choose a plan which matches your exact requirements and your resources. Whether it's maximum coverage at lowest cost, systematic savings at a guaranteed rate of interest, or a realistic combination of protection and savings, your Nationwide agent has a plan for you. Every family can now have the vital protection they need while they save for retirement.

Nationwide Widely Known As A Company That's Different

Murray D. Lincoln, Nationwide's President, is often asked, "What's so different about Nationwide?" His reply usually begins, "Nothing much...if all you want is a company that collects premiums and has the resources to pay claims."

"But," he hastily adds, "if you're looking for something more—the satisfaction, say, of knowing that your premiums are buying insurance designed to protect real people rather than statistics...or if you think it's a healthy idea for policyholders to have a real voice in their company's operation—then Nationwide is different."

"This organization was started thirty-five years ago by people in search of low-cost insurance. We grew, expanded our coverages, were invited into neighboring states, because our kind of insurance was needed."

"Nationwide continues to build on the fundamental principle that whenever we're confronted with new problems, all of us, working together, can find new and better solutions to these problems."

Expert Assistance Available

Nationwide also offers you—at no charge or obligation—the professional services of highly trained, experienced insurance agents. Since your local Nationwide agent offers a complete range of insurance products, he can recommend the life insurance policy which best fits your total protection picture. He can provide you with a coordinated, all-around protection program, with no dangerous gaps or costly overlaps, no needless waste or extras—all at minimum cost!

For full details, call your nearest Nationwide representative. He's listed in the "Insurance" section of your Yellow Pages.
